SUR LE MOTIF
MABA 10-YEAR ANNIVERSARY EXHIBITION
MAISON D'ART BERNARD ANTHONIOZ, NOGENT-SUR-MARNE - FRANCE
UNTIL APRIL 30th 2016

For its 10-year anniversary, the Maison d'Art Bernard Anthonioz (MABA) in Nogent-sur-Marne (France), is presenting a new exhibition entitled Sur le motif, until April 30th 2016. The exhibition aims at visiting or revisiting works directly created and inspired by MABA's heritage (tangible or intangible), by the memory of its former occupants (or their ghosts), by its stories (real or imaginary), by the books of its library (encyclopedias and pocket novels), by its park... Sur le motif confronts graphic works, photographs, videos, texts, installations and sculptures by the artists Xavier Antin, Bastien Aubry & Dimitri Broquard, Jean-Marc Ballée, Anne-Lise Broyer, Mimosa Echard, Jason Glasser, Tamar Guimarães & Kasper Akhøj, Harmen Liemburg, Barbara Manzetti, Catherine Poncin, Natascha Sadr Haghghian, Madeleine Smith-Champion, Frédéric Teschner and Jessica Warboys. MABA is seen under a new light, allowing different perspectives provided by artists who, years after years, have shaped a new territory and created meta-images of the place. These artworks, deeply rooted in MABA's particular memory, also contributed to keeping it alive – from Basel to Rio de Janeiro, Amsterdam, Copenhagen, Los Angeles and Zurich – intertwining the specific heritage of MABA to an ever-evolving creative energy.
